Counseling Center Agreement for Treatment

Appointments - are to be made in advance. If you are unable to keep your appointment, you must notify your therapist at least 48-hours in advance. If the appointment is not kept or cancelled without proper notice, you will be charged.

Counseling Sessions - are forty-five to fifty-five minutes.

Confidentiality - will be maintained so you will be free to discuss your concerns openly. Therapists are required by law to break confidentiality in certain specific circumstances such as in elder or child abuse, if there is imminent danger to the client or others, or if the client should bring any type of legal action against the therapist or Pilgrimage Family Therapy.

Fees - payment of the agreed upon fee or co-pay is due and payable at the time of the visit.

Emergencies - if there is an emergency, contact your therapist by calling the number above. In event of a life-threatening situation, first call the police and/or paramedics by calling 911.

Referral of Client - the therapist, Pilgrimage Family Therapy, and/or Clinical Director, reserve the right to refer the client to another therapist, by giving the name of three other therapists to client for referral.

Therapist - it is understood by all those seeking services at Pilgrimage Family Therapy that this is a teaching facility which trains people to be psychotherapists. Your therapist may be unlicensed but under supervision of a licensed therapist.

Agreement - the fee agreed upon for counseling is $ _____
